

For Immediate Release
October 18, 2017

Contact: Ann Fogarty
707-447-3050
annfogarty@icloud.com

City Coach and You

City Coach Transit is Holding Public Outreach Meetings for Community Input

What do riders love about City Coach? What don't they love as much? Are there new or different routes that should be offered? What may inspire more people to choose City Coach for their mode of transportation? City Coach Transit, Vacaville's public transit agency is encouraging these and many other questions.

City Coach will be inviting rider and community input on three separate days, through six meetings on October 30, November 1 and November 2.

"We are always open to learning about how we can build upon our loyal ridership and motivate new riders to sample our services," says Lori DaMassa, Transit Coordinator for City Coach. "It is important to us to widen the availability of opportunities to get a lot of feedback from the community."

Public Meeting Schedule:

- October 30 at Three Oaks Community Center at 1100 Alamo Drive. Two meetings starting at 10:00 a.m. and again at 3:00 p.m.
- November 1 at Ulatis Cultural Center at 1000 Ulatis Drive. Two meetings starting at 10:00 a.m. and again at 3:00 p.m.
- November 2 at Trower Center on 100 Holly Lane at 10:00 a.m. and McBride Senior Center at 91 Town Square Place at 3:00 p.m.

For more information about City Coach and You, please call 449-6000.
City Coach is an award-winning public transit program operated by the City of Vacaville Public Works. For more information about routes, passes, customized services, special events, fares and more, call 449-6000 or visit citycoach.com.

City Coach: Connecting People to Community